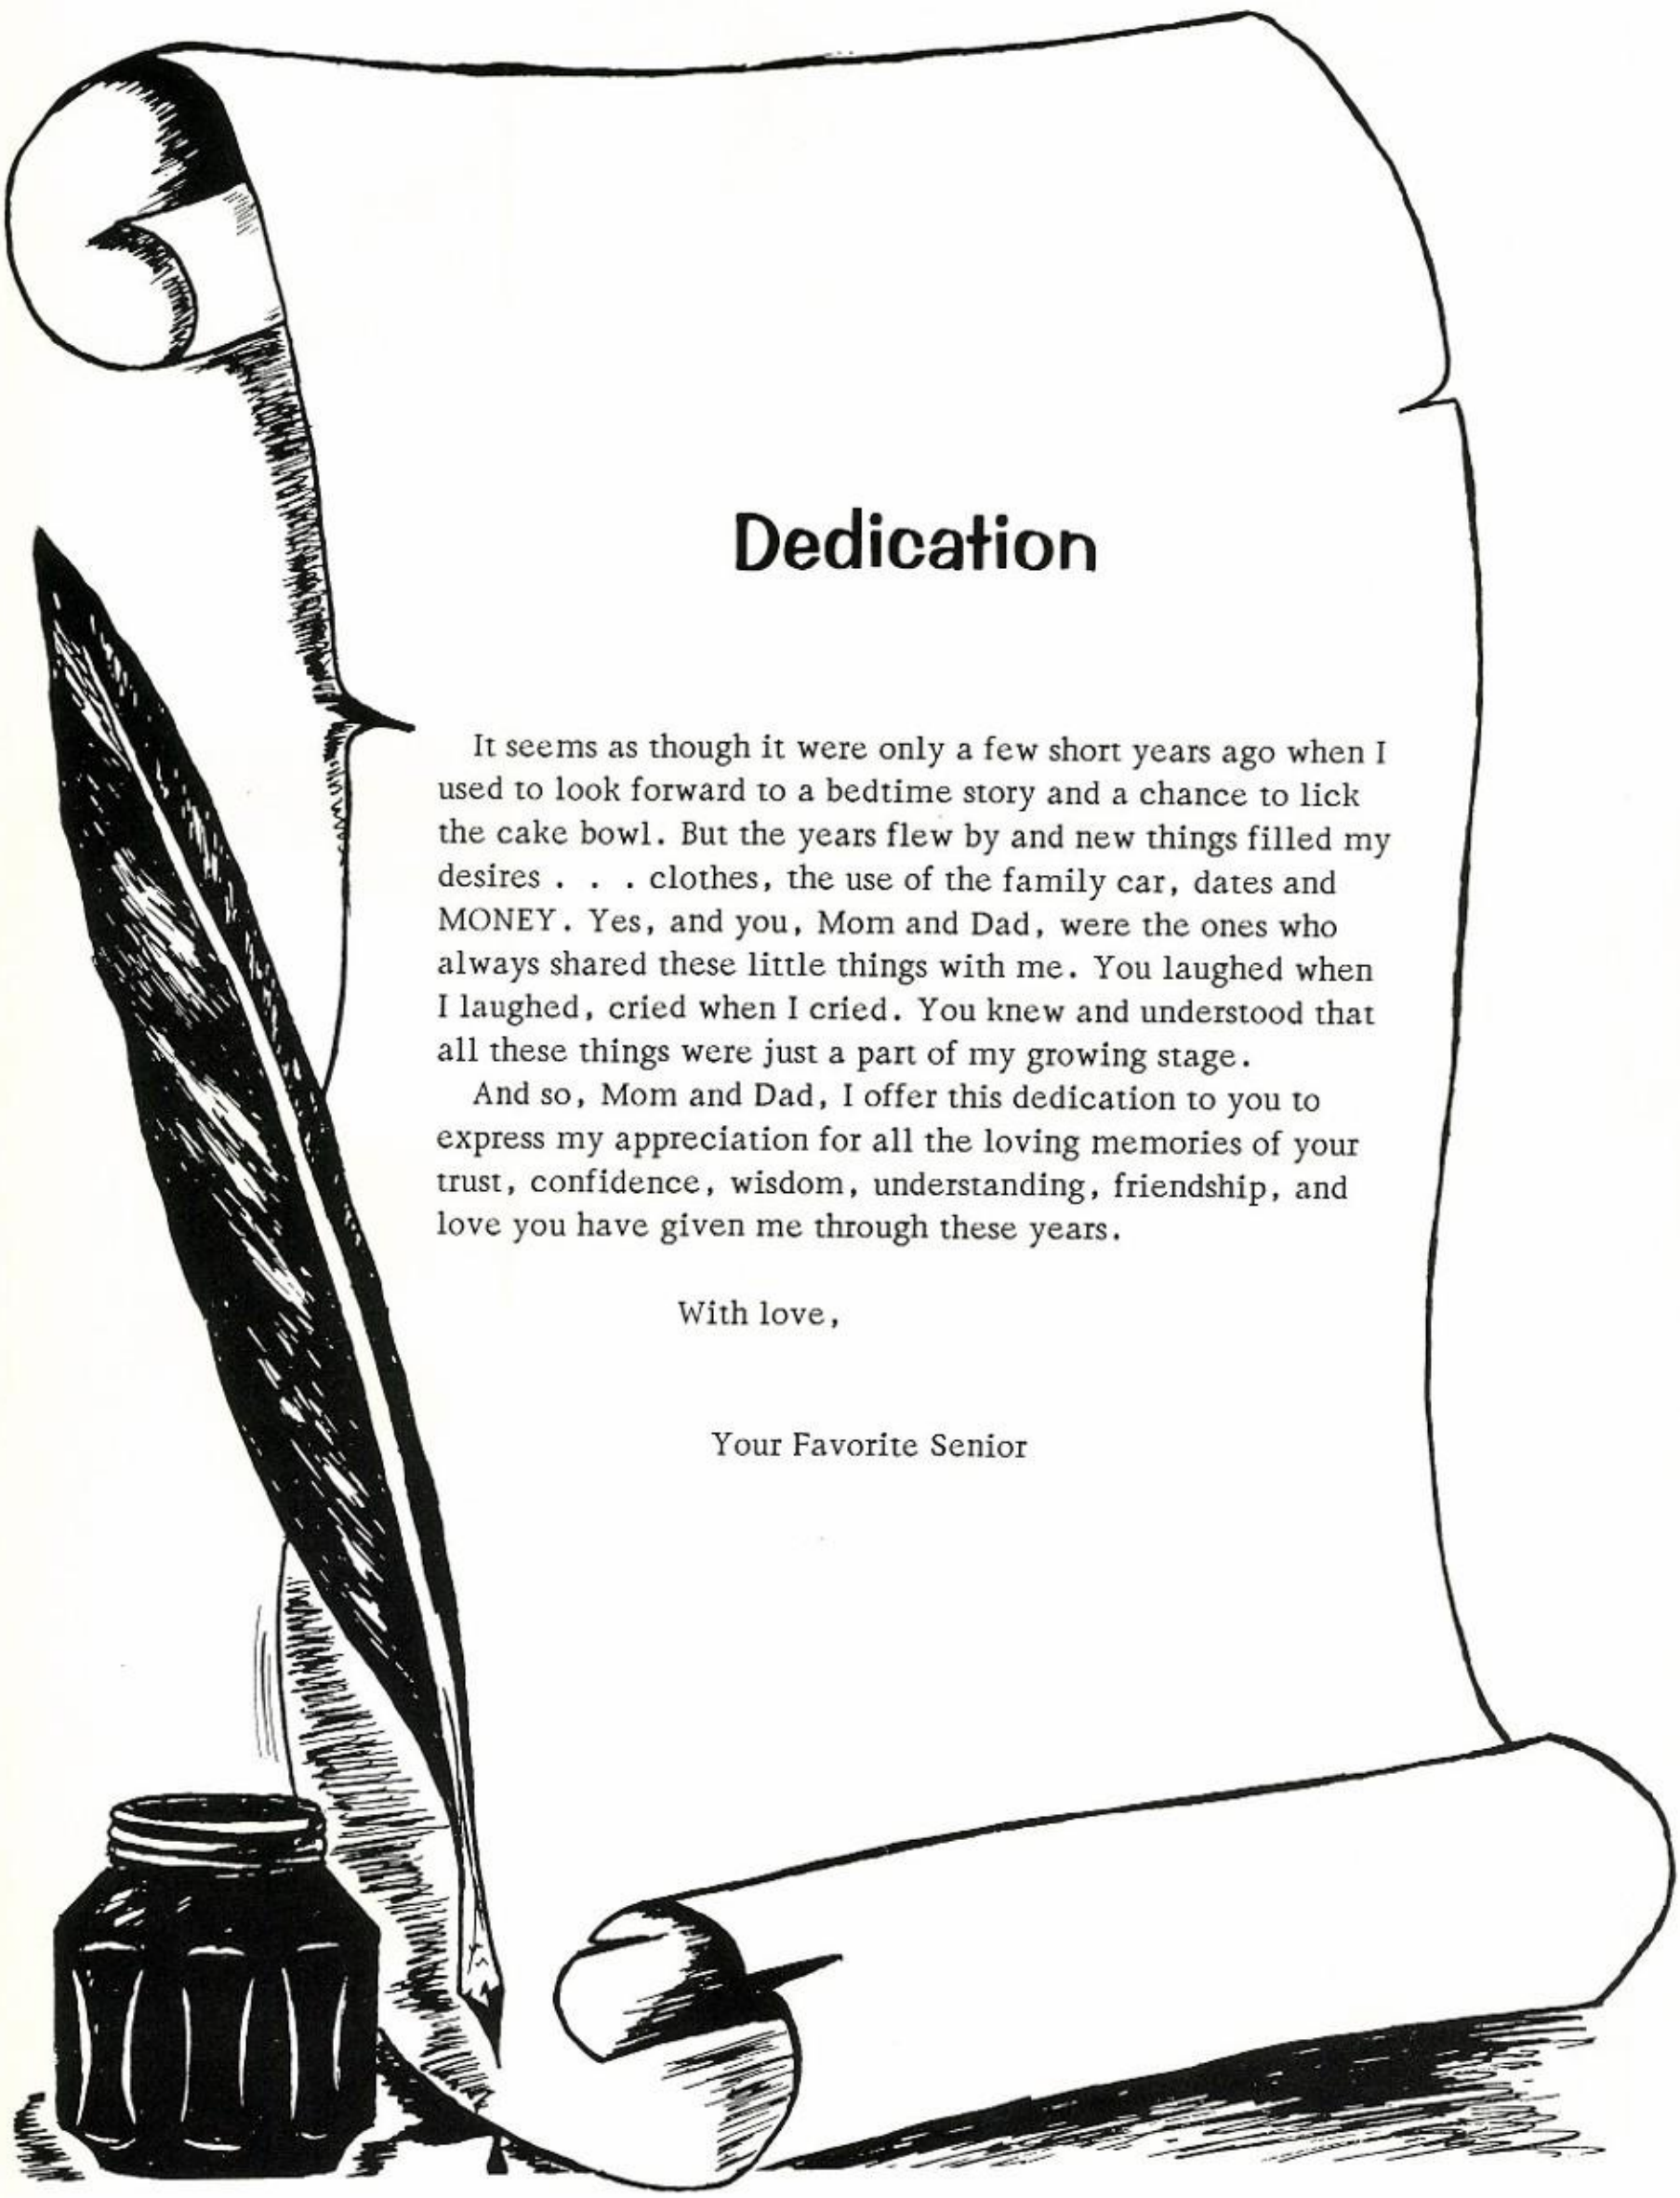
Dedication

It seems as though it were only a few short years ago when I used to look forward to a bedtime story and a chance to lick the cake bowl. But the years flew by and new things filled my desires . . . clothes, the use of the family car, dates and MONEY. Yes, and you, Mom and Dad, were the ones who always shared these little things with me. You laughed when I laughed, cried when I cried. You knew and understood that all these things were just a part of my growing stage.

And so, Mom and Dad, I offer this dedication to you to express my appreciation for all the loving memories of your trust, confidence, wisdom, understanding, friendship, and love you have given me through these years.

With love,

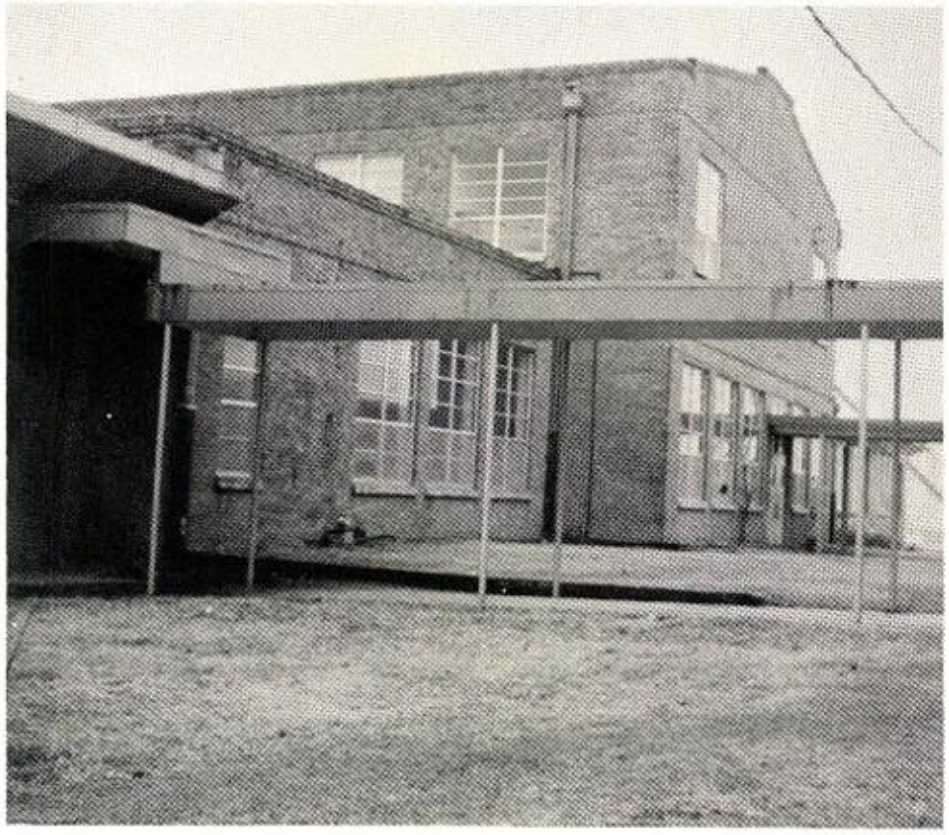
Your Favorite Senior

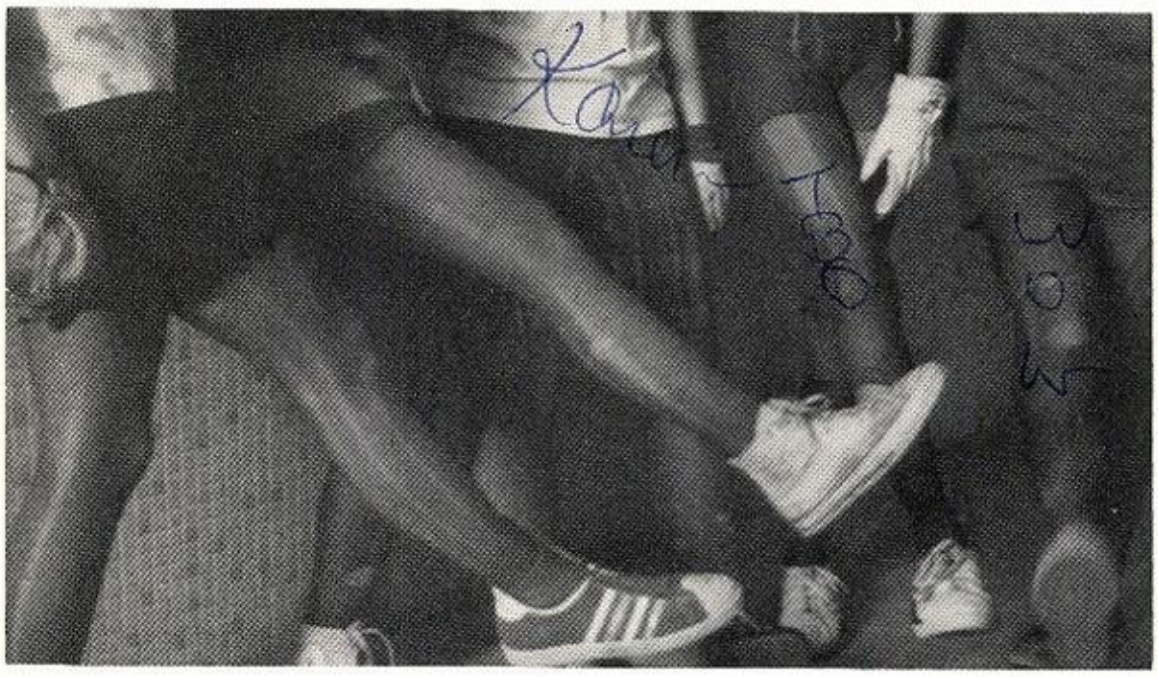


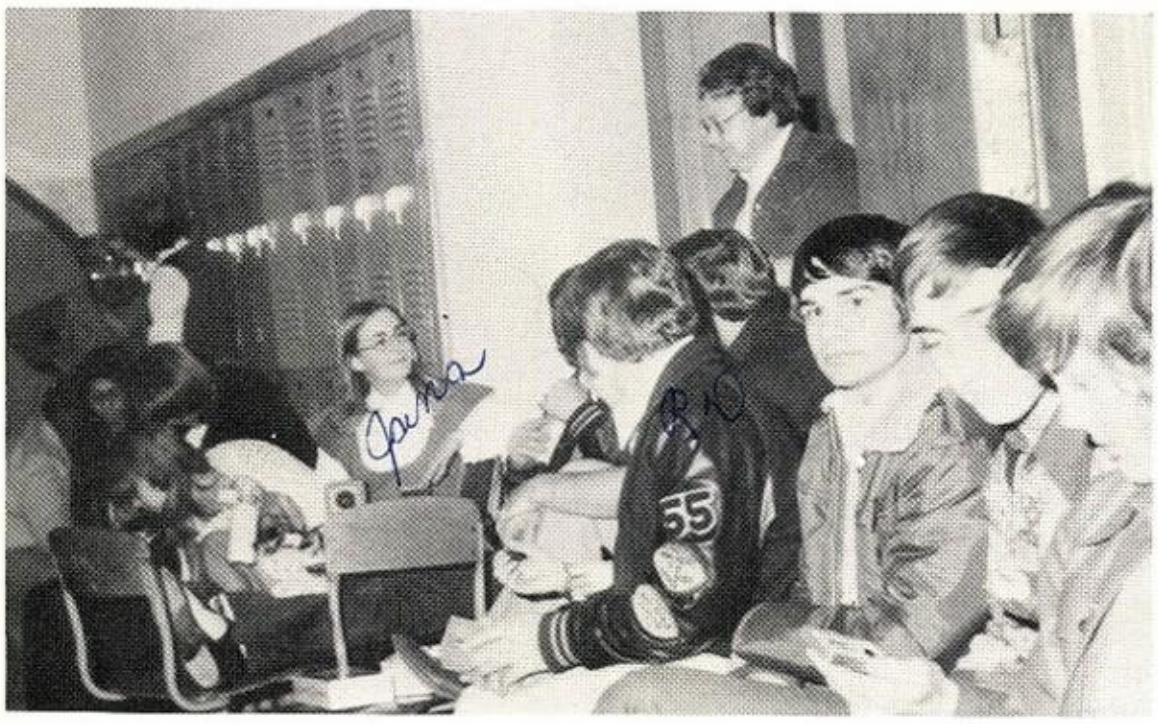
Desiderata

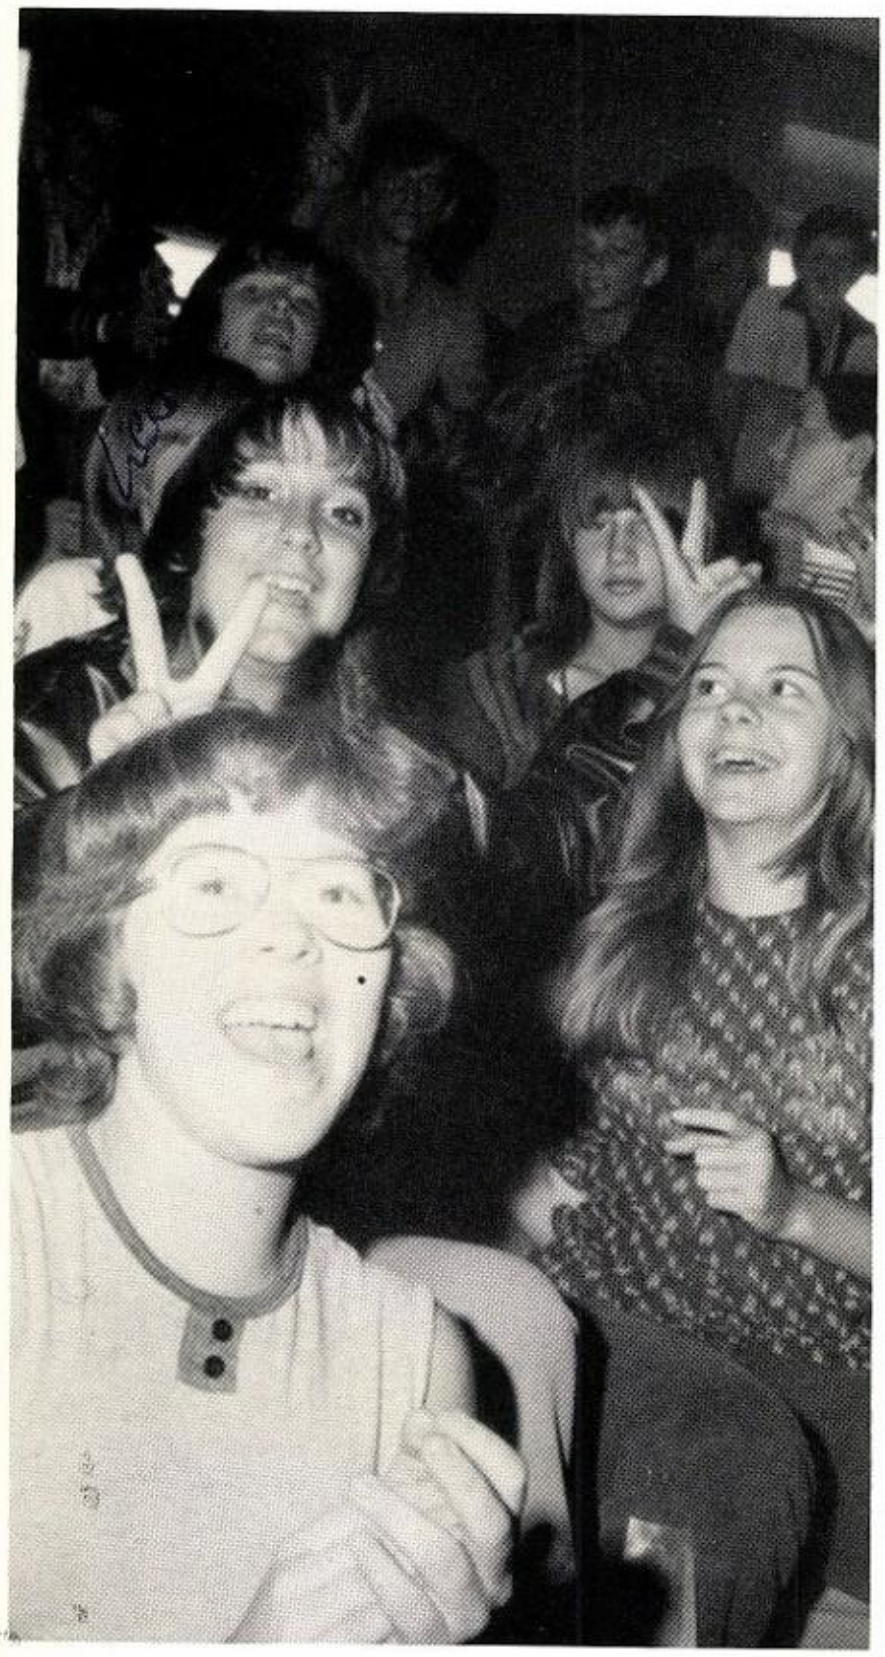
Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story.

Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans.









Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism.

Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself.

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should.

Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul.

With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

ELEMENTARY

Kirk,

As I thumb through these pages, it carries so many memories — some joyful - some sad - because I know there are many that would always be special to me. Seriously, Kirk, you are a one that every Teacher would want to have in class. I admire your bringing your Personality, your Typing!! and — being you. You could always be counted on to meet it most delightfully. I know this year will be as enjoyed being your Teacher and such a student to me, as has been a joy!! Friend! The crazy, unpredictable things that happen to you — very best for life. Hold the very best for you — for you deserve it!!

Love always,

Mrs. Simmons

Kirk,

I really don't like to think of the end of this school year. It is always a time of regret because I know that so many of their separate ways, will be going their separate ways, but this year will be different from the rest because you are a part of the last class that has been a personal time for me. You have been a joy to have in class, and I wish for you all the success and happiness life can hold. You will not have a thing to worry about if you stay the way you are.

Much love,
Mrs Percy

Kris:

Although we have had our differences lately I will always think of you as one of my best friends. Since I first got to know you I liked each other (sometimes a little more than others) but all the same I had fun. And since we are both going to Jarleton next year we will probably be seeing a lot of each other. Next Week when we go on our senior trip (which I think will be a blast) I think will be the best time we have had in a long time. And maybe sometime next year I will come to you for my problems (and rides home!). See Ya Next Year.

Dear Second Cousin,

Our last days at W+S are here and I guess we should be happy. But you know, I wish we were back in the first grade, making gold out of sand rocks and playing "Lost in Space." Weren't things simple then. We didn't have to make decisions like, "Who will I fight with today, the faculty or my classmates?" I'll always hold dear those moments at the courts in Graham where we spent half the time retrieving tennis balls off the Ag building. What precious memories! And our band, I can't forget that. My mean bass playing & your drums made the group. (Especially the bass) I wish we were still playing but all good things must come to an end. Has it really sunk in yet that we won't be back here again. We'll be at college, and from home, by ourselves, for the first time. Are we prepared? I hope so, 'cause I'm going to give it HEC. Should I say, are Tarleton & Watterford prepared for us? It works both ways. As bad as I hate to, I guess I'll have to say good-bye to one of the upcoming World Champion Basketball coaches (or whatever sport it is you pick). Take care & keep beating those drums, whacking tennis balls, strumming the guitar and blowing that horn. Better write Tarleton and give them fair warning!

Love,
Johnna

P.S. Don't forget to take along a few turkeys, chicken and guineas for company. Anything will be better than Joe for a roommate.

Kirk
Our Senior year

Kirk,
Well it's nearing the end of another long year. I know you've kept to the last. Those last years have been fun, especially because I've been in Chemistry. I think I could have made one of those experiments work, if it weren't for your help. Those are all I wish you the best guy & I wish you in the world.
